

Phillip

Birthdate:
February 1996

Phillip loves swimming, gardening, movies, video games, arts/crafts, and camping. He is described as creative, caring, and he has a sense of humor. Phillip also enjoys long conversations and forming relationships with others. He wants a family that will support his continued involvement in these various activities.

Phillip recently transitioned from residential treatment care into a foster home setting. He has done fairly well with the transition. Phillip continues to work on addressing issues in counseling. Plans are also in process for Phillip to transition back into his alternative school setting. Phillip continues to work on his IEP (Individualized Educational Plan) goals that help to address his needs. Phillip will need your help with maintaining boundaries and a sense of belonging, as well as learning how to take responsibility for the choices he makes.

Those working with Phillip believe that the best family for him is one with no younger children in the home. Phillip needs a family that has time to devote to him and willing to advocate for him in all areas. Phillip's new family must be willing to work with service providers in order to learn more about him and how to care for his specific needs.

If you are the family that can love and support Phillip, then I look forward to hearing from you.
